TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Retainer and Confirmation. A non-refundable retainer equal to 30% of the Total Contracted Amount is due when this contract is signed. The date and event are not confirmed, and no date is held, until Go Event Group's office has received BOTH the signed contract and the retainer. The retainer reserves the date, staff and equipment for the Client and is non-refundable for any reason.

2. Payment. The remaining balance, including any additions, applicable taxes, and any check or credit card processing fees, is due in full 30 days prior to the contracted event date. Tip and tax are not included in the listed prices; applicable taxes will be added as required by law. Items added after signing are added to the balance. Returned checks incur a $50 return fee and are subject to late and legal fees. Go Event Group may withhold services if the balance has not been paid by the due date.

3. Cancellation. If the Client cancels for any reason, the retainer is considered a cancellation fee and is non-refundable. If the event is cancelled within 30 days of the contracted date, the full contracted balance is due and non-refundable.

4. Rescheduling. If the Client requests to reschedule or postpone the event date, a fee of 20% of the contract total will be added to the final costs. A reschedule date must be agreed on in writing by both the Client and Go Event Group and is subject to availability.

5. Event Planners and Coordinators. The Client is responsible for a 20% service charge if working with a wedding or event planner that is not hired or supplied through Go Event Group.

6. Equipment, Damage and Client Responsibility. The Client assumes full responsibility for any damage to the staff's equipment and gear caused by the Client or the Client's guests, whether accidental or intentional, including but not limited to damage by theft, fire, vandalism, water or other liquids, while at the event. The Client agrees to pay the cost of repair or replacement.

7. Staffing and Substitutions. Go Event Group will provide requested entertainers and staff whenever possible. In the event of an emergency replacement, the Client is assured an entertainer or staff member of equal caliber. However, the requested staff member is never guaranteed.

8. Venue, Setup and Power. The Client is required to furnish one 6 foot table not further than 25 feet from electrical power. The Client is responsible for venue approval of the services, load-in and setup access, and any venue rules, fees or permits, and for providing a safe, covered and powered area for outdoor events. Go Event Group is not responsible for delays or limits caused by the venue.

9. Staff Meals. The Go Event Group staff are considered guests and must be provided a meal or meal option at the time the Client's guests are served.

10. Special Effects and Fireworks. Special effects (including cold spark fountains, low fog, CO2, confetti, bubbles and fireworks) are subject to venue approval, weather, and all applicable Connecticut and local fire, safety and permit requirements. Fireworks require licensed operators and permits. Go Event Group may modify, delay or decline any effect it believes is unsafe or not permitted, without liability to the Client.

11. Music and Entertainment. Go Event Group will honor reasonable music requests and "do not play" lists submitted in advance, but the DJ and MC keep final discretion over music selection, volume and event flow. Guests use dance floors, platforms, effects and other equipment at their own risk.

12. Photo and Video; Print and Album Items. Go Event Group keeps the copyright in all photos and video it produces and grants the Client a license for personal, non-commercial use. Go Event Group may use event images in its portfolio, website and social media. The Client agrees to forfeit all included print and album items if they are not ordered within 6 months after the contracted event date.

13. Additional Time. Time beyond the contracted hours is subject to staff availability and is billed at Go Event Group's then-current rate.

14. Force Majeure; Limit of Liability. Go Event Group is not liable for failure or delay in performing due to causes beyond its reasonable control, including severe weather, natural disaster, government order, utility failure, travel restrictions or illness. Go Event Group will make reasonable efforts to provide the services on another mutually agreed date. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Go Event Group's total liability under this contract is limited to the amounts the Client has paid to Go Event Group, and Go Event Group is not liable for indirect or consequential damages. The Client agrees to indemnify Go Event Group against claims arising from the conduct of the Client, the Client's guests or the venue.

15. Electronic Signatures and Records. The parties agree that this contract may be signed electronically, by typed or drawn signature, and delivered electronically, and that electronic signatures and copies have the same legal effect as handwritten signatures and originals under the federal ESIGN Act and the Connecticut Uniform Electronic Transactions Act. The Client consents to do business electronically.

16. Governing Law and General Terms. This contract is governed by the laws of the State of Connecticut, and any dispute will be brought in the state or federal courts located in Connecticut. This contract is the entire agreement between the parties, may be changed only in a writing signed by both parties, and if any part is found unenforceable the rest remains in effect. The Client confirms that they are at least 18 years old and have authority to sign for any organization named in this contract.
